About Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalayas

Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalayas are a school system running under the control of Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India. These schools are affiliated to CBSE Board and are managed and controlled by an autonomous body named as Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti (NVS).

NVS is aimed to grant admissions to talented children coming from the rural areas of the country. Admissions in class VI and IX are made on the basis of entrance test known as Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya Selection Test (JNVST). The test is conducted every year and lakhs of candidates fill the application and appear for it. Candidates have to secure marks above than the set cut-off marks to qualify the test.
